Ambassador Tours Honored with 'Ensemble Elite' Award From Global Travel Agency Organization

(SAN FRANCISCO, Jun 28, 2017) – Ambassador Tours was recently named among the “Ensemble Elite” for Ensemble Travel® Group, one of the travel industry’s premier networks of approximately 850 member agencies in the U.S., Canada, Australia, and New Zealand.

The San Francisco-based agency was one of only 50 travel agencies honored for its leading sales performance of preferred supplier products in 2016, including cruise lines, tour operators, hotels, airlines, rental car, and travel insurance companies.

Ambassador Tours has been part of this elite circle of top producers since Ensemble Travel Group first formally started the awards recognition 10 years ago.

Bryan Pollard of Ambassador Tours accepted the award on behalf of the agency during a recent seven-day Norse Legends cruise aboard Holland America Line’s ms Koningsdam. Sailing roundtrip from Amsterdam, honorees were treated to a number of private experiences, including a premium wine tasting with the ship’s cellar master, an exclusive excursion viewing the Geiranger Fjord, and a special awards dinner atop Mount Aksla, which offered a panoramic view of Ålesund, the archipelago, and surrounding mountains.

In addition, participants attended special business meetings, led by Co-Presidents Lindsay Pearlman and Libbie Rice, to discuss trends and new initiatives planned or under discussion in the coming year. The program also featured informal discussion sessions for members with more than 20 supplier sponsors.

“Congratulations to Ambassador Tours for this prestigious honor and for helping Ensemble achieve the best year in our company’s history from a North American profit-sharing perspective,” said Pearlman, whose organization turns 50 in 2018. “This was our first celebration using the ‘Ensemble Elite’ brand, a new name that so aptly describes this group of incredibly accomplished industry and business leaders. Ambassador Tours has demonstrated that they have what it takes to consistently deliver exceptional service, insider knowledge, and extraordinary itineraries to their clients.”

Through its affiliation with Ensemble Travel Group, Ambassador Tours has access to a portfolio of worldwide travel products and services for its customers, in addition to an array of exclusive and complimentary benefits and amenities to enhance the vacation experience.
